Dinner Sets.

At Bargain Prices.

100 Piece Sets
Worth $16.00 for $12.

These dishes are made of the best iron-stone china, and are not the cheap, chalky kind that break easily. The patterns are pretty and the finish is fine. $12 is less than the wholesale price on some of these sets. If you need a set you'd better get one of this lot, as no more will be obtainable at these prices.

Snyder Hardware Co.,
Louisa, Kentucky.

Torchlight.

John Miller, better known as "Uncle Johnny," a former citizen of this county, but now of Prestonsburg, was here last week looking for a farm.

A fine crowd of Louisa huntmen spent a whole night last week in hunting and the success of the night's raid can be counted on the little finger of the left hand.

Quite a nice shipment of corn was made last week to Col. Jay H. Northup at White House, by W. D. Hammond, one of our best farmers.

C. J. Bartels and Robert Collins were party guests in Louisa Thursday night of last week.

Otto Hammond, who was off duty several days on account of an amputated finger, is again at work, considerably bothered by the absence of a finger. But thinks he can soon overcome it.

Frank Maynard, one of our nearby farmers, came to see us the other day and informs us that work on the new road to Louisa, via Walbridge is progressing slowly.

A passway so badly needed should have the best attention until finished. In this connection we desire to say that at this writing, the Louisa Coal Company is engaged with two teams and six men making complete this road over their part of the land over which the road passes. If everyone on the line would put forth a little effort this would soon be open and the public travel get the benefit of the most needed road in the county.

John New has sold his farm lying just across the river from Lower Torchlight to John Miller and son of Prestonsburg. Consideration $500.00. Mr. New speaks of going West.

Thomas Cochran has purchased from George Wilson the Hiram Hurley tract of land on the ridge between A. H. Miller's and Lick Branch. Consideration about $250. Thomas will move out in the spring and farm for a living so we are informed.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Col. T. W. Newberry, who has been very sick for a few days, we are glad to say is able to be out again.—Inez Press.

Hi Pauley and D. T. Keel have purchased the business and furniture of the Williamson Hotel. Mr. Pauley is manager of the hotel.

The Rev. A. N. Morris, the pastor of the Baptist Church down at Russell, and who supplied at Pollard, just back of Ashland, has resigned his pastorate, to accept a charge at Jackson, Breathitt county.

Rev. J. W. Rose State Evangelist, of the Missionary Baptist Church, from Hopkinsville, opened a revival meeting at the First Church in Inez last Thursday. The services are largely attended both day and night.—Inez Press.

Mrs. Mary Ingram, aged 91 years, died at her home in Bath county, after a lingering illness of the infirmities of old age. Her eyesight was good and she never used glasses. She refused to have a physician in her last illness, saying she had lived long enough.

Farmers, Ky., Jan. 30.—All the sawmill men have gone on a strike. The demanded an increase in wages and a revision in payrolls. All the mills are closed and about two hundred men and boys are now idle. It is predicted, however, that matters will be adjusted soon.

Judge Harmon Harris of Prestonsburg, has conveyed to W. S. Harkins his interest in a valuable tract of land, situated about eight miles above Prestonsburg on Brandy Keg. Rich coal is said to be underlying this tract of land which Mr. Harkins proposes to operate.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Bolt's fork last week, the contracting parties being Estell Riffe and Miss Dora May Stanley. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stanley, and a large number of relatives and friends were present to witness the marriage.

From the Court of Appeals: Hocker, etc., vs. Keeton, etc., McGoffin, affirmed.

Wilson vs. Bartee, etc., Martin; affirmed.

Ward, etc., vs. the Triple State Natural Gas Company, etc., Martin, reversed.

Hurst vs. Phillips, etc., Pike; affirmed.

Pikeville, Ky.—N. Starkey was a business visitor at Elk Horn yesterday. He reports that the trestle work leading to the pier of the railroad bridge across Big Sandy at that place is just about completed, and that Contractor Gus Keathley, who has the contract for that part of the work, is just about through, and will soon go elsewhere.

Word was received in Pikeville of the death of L. D. Hatfield, from typhoid fever, at his home in John's Creek. Mr. Hatfield married Miss Sallie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams, of this place and they have one little daughter. Mr. Hatfield was one of Pike county's foremost teachers. He owned a nice home in Pikeville, which, however, he had never moved into.

Grayson, Ky., Jan. 27.—Moses Qualls, a merchant of Smoky Valley, and Scott Dean, farmer, were shot by their brother-in-law, Dr. J. H. Jones, today. Dr. Jones used a double barrel shotgun and fired at close range, striking Qualls in the left breast, making probably a fatal wound. Dean was wounded in the legs. Family trouble is said to have been the cause of the difficulty.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 30.—Will Spurlock, member of a prominent Big Sandy Valley family, was brought to the local asylum violently insane, his insanity being due it is said, to drinking various essences when unable to get alcoholic stimulants.

Spurlock created consternation in the Florence Hotel, at Catlettsburg, several days ago while being there under guard while en route to the Kessler Hospital for treatment before he was adjudged insane.

Owingsville, Ky., Jan. 29.—The home of Nathaniel Workman, of Moore's Ferry, burned last night during a severe snowstorm. Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Workman were burned to death. They were in their room and could not be reached because of the smoke and intense heat, which filled the main parts of the house. Mr. and Mrs. Workman were also seriously injured.

It was some time before neighbors could be aroused to help and by that time the fire had gained such headway that nothing could be saved. Neighbors helped the stricken family in every way that they could. There was small insurance on the property.

Maysville, Ky., Jan. 28.—The Hon. C. D. Newell, County Judge of Mason county, yesterday announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination to Circuit Judge in the Nineteenth judicial district composed of Bracken, Fleming and Mason counties. The Hon. Jas. P. Harbeson, of Fleming county, the incumbent is also a candidate for the nomination.

The race is already proving a very interesting one, with the fight centering in Bracken county, since Mason will instruct for Newell and Fleming for Harbeson. Precinct conventions will be held in the several counties on February 20, delegate county conventions in Maysville, Brooksville and Feemingsburg on February 22, and the district convention in Brooksville on February 24.

As noted in last evening's issue a young man was arrested at Russell yesterday morning, and brought to the city jail here, charged with having passed a fake check.

PE-RU-NA TONIC FOR COUGHS, COLDS, CATARRH.

Peruna Drug Co., Columbus, Ohio. Gentlemen: I have used Peruna and find that it cannot be equaled as a tonic, as well as a cure for coughs, colds and catarrh. You are authorized to use my photo with testimonial in any publication. Joseph H. Chase, 804 Tenth St., Washington, D. C.

Cold and La Grippe. Mr. C. Happy, Hardin, Ray Co., Mo., writes: "I can safely recommend Peruna as a remedy that will cure all catarrhal troubles."

"It was of great benefit to me, as it cured me of catarrh of the throat, and I took a very bad cold and had la grippe last February. It settled in my throat and lungs. I took three bottles of Peruna and it cured me."

"I highly recommend it to all who are sick, and I am glad to add my endorsement to that of others."

Pe-ru-na for Colds. Mr. L. Clifford Figg, Jr., 329 East Marshall St., Richmond, Va., writes that when he gets a cold he takes Peruna, and it soon drives out of his system. For several years he was not entirely well, but Peruna completely cured him. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets. Ask your Druggist for a FREE Peruna Almanac for 1909.

sell yesterday morning, and brought to the city jail here, charged with having passed a fake check. Chas. Miller, of Russell, while in this city four months ago. The check was signed James C. Cordle, but the man insisted that his name was Wilburn Wiley Hall, that he was from Melvin, Floyd county, and was not guilty of the charge placed against him.

Today the prisoner says his real name is Wm. J. Bates, of Republican Knott county; that he is 23 years old, was formerly a school teacher, and was married when he was 16; that he has a child 6 years old, but that he and his wife have been separated for some time. He says there has been an indictment against him in Knott county for a long while for confederating, and that since then he has gone under the name of W. W. Hall, which is really the name of an uncle of his, up Big Sandy.—Ashland Independent.
